In the event that you can't find either representative, follow signs for passport control

Immediately prior to entering the passport control hall, look to your left...

...where you'll find a telephone to the Ministry of Absorption

Pick up the phone for a direct line to the Ministry of Absorption – no need to dial or for coins

Second stop: Passport control

At passport control make sure that your Oleh visa is stamped

Israeli passport holders – make sure to get a stamp rather than using the biometric option

Third stop: Ministry of Absorption – receipt of initial documents – by status

Oleh: Teudat Oleh, 1st Sal Klita payment, health fund registration, form with personal details for the Interior Ministry, referral to local office of the Ministry of Absorption, form for the bank for further Sal Klita payments, a voucher for free transportation to first destination.

Ezrach Oleh: Teudat Zakaut, 1st Sal Klita payment, referral to local office of the Ministry of Absorption, form for the bank for further Sal Klita payments, a voucher for free transportation to first destination.

Katin Hozer: does not receive documents at the airport, but can get a voucher for free transportation to first destination.

Third stop: Ministry of Absorption – receipt of initial documents – by status

Oleh who was previously an A1 visa holder or who served in Machal: doesn't receive documents at the airport but is referred to the local branch of the Ministry of Absorption

An Oleh who needs to be added to the Teudat Oleh of their spouse will be referred to the local branch of the Ministry of Absorption

Fourth stop: baggage collection

A member of staff will accompany you to pick up your baggage from the conveyor

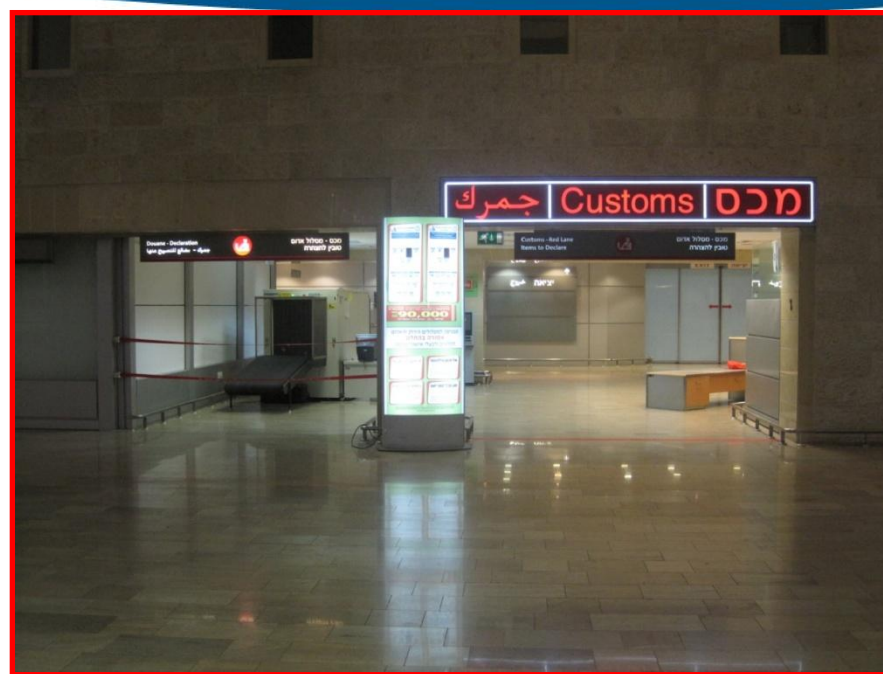

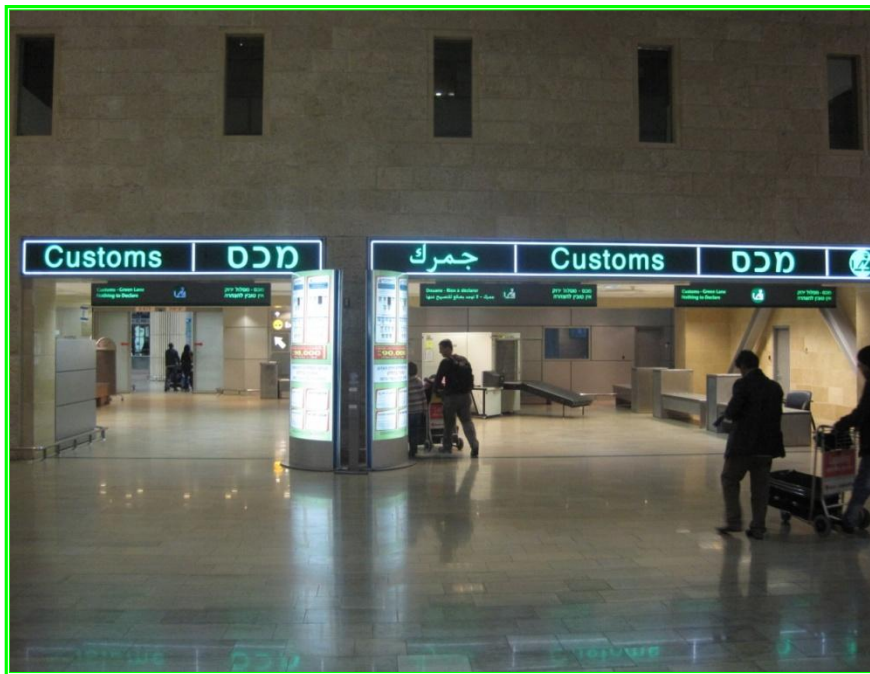

There is no charge to use a luggage trolley. Larger trolleys with porters are available for a fee of NIS 80

Fifth stop: Customs – go through the red or green channel

Fifth stop: Customs

Customs requires you to declare (red channel) any item valued at more than $200 like any other passenger.

You are required to declare (red channel) if you are carrying cash, equivalent to more than NIS 1,200,000 (don't forget the 1st Sal Klita payment!)

Continue to the arrivals hall

Continue to the taxi station. Olim, Ezrachim Olim and Katinim Chozrim are entitled to free transportation to their first destination.
Use the voucher you received from the Ministry of Immigration and Absorption.

Wishing you a soft landing and much luck as you take your first steps in Israel !
